Despite the winter chill outside, Summerour Studio was all aglow as Los Angeles Dodger pitcher Brandon Beachy (formerly of the Atlanta Braves) wed stunning Pure Barre Buckhead instructor Ashley Stringfield in November. Alyssa Olson of Sashay Events coordinated all the details of the chic ceremony and heartwarming celebration that followed.

After descending a candelit staircase in a trailing Lazaro gown, the beautiful bride joined her handsome groom and guests in enjoying a spread of Southern cuisine courtesy of Bold American Events.

Bold American's Kristine Finke riffed off Summerour Studio's rustic charm using a mixture of vintage metallic and antique glass elements for decor that simply sparkled. In between nibbles of cake courtesy of Metrotainment Bakery, the crowd danced the night away thanks to 8-piece band Party Nation.

After a swift exit through a tunnel of sparklers held by their guests, the happy couple made their way off into the night in a red 1957 Chevy Bel Air convertible and on to a honeymoon at the Viceroy Sugar Beach in St. Lucia.
